

1. Can you describe your early childhood and upbringing?
2. Can you tell us what you may recall from your time with the Amish when growing up?
3. What is your favorite memory from childhood?
4. Are you still connected to Amish and Mennonites in your extended family?
5. What are some of the most significant events or experiences that have shaped you?
6. What were the events that led up to you and your husband joining the CIA and what can you tell us about your most memorable events during that time?
7. Understanding you lived through a war during your time in Pakistan, tell us some of the memorable moments.
8. How did you go from CIA to becoming pastors and launching a new church?
9. How did your time in the CIA compare to receiving the call to pastor and the challenges of growing a church ministry?
10. So, you actually died in a church service? Can you tell us something about that?
11. What are some of the challenges you have faced in life?
12. How have you grown and changed over time?
13. What are your hopes and dreams for the future?
14. What is your favorite book and why?
15. What are you currently reading?
16. What made you decide to write your memoir?
17. How does your faith intersect with your day-to-day living?

About writing:

1. How did you decide what to include and what to leave out?
2. What was the most challenging part of writing this memoir?
3. How long did it take to write, from start to finish?
4. Did you have any specific goals or messages you wanted to convey through the memoir?
5. What did you learn about yourself while writing this memoir?
6. How do you feel about the potential impact of your memoir on others?

7. What advice would you give to someone who is considering writing their own memoir?
8. What was the most difficult part of the writing process?
9. What was the most rewarding part of the writing process?